Come Tonight

How well do you get along with your family? This pertinent subject of "Being a Christian in the Home" will bring many comments. Edith Ann Griswold will guide the discussion at the CYF. Let's bring our schoolmates and join in the songfest at 7:30 p.m.

The CYF is grateful to the Methodist Church of McGehee for their recent invitation to attend their Youth Leadership Institute. Our members were richly blessed through this fellowship.

The YPCF will hear Mr. Wilbur J. Kitchen, Boston, Mass. As executive-secretary of the New England Student Christian Movement, he is in close contact with the heart throb of youth. If you're interested in New England colleges, he can help you, also.

The postponed YPCF-YBA meeting will be held next Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Messhall 35. "The Nisei and Post-war America" will be the challenging subject. Refreshments will be served.

Hiroshi Ueyehara for church bulletins.

To the publishers, for the generous supply of The Upper Room, devotional booklets.

With an offering of fifteen dollars from Miss Josephine Backwith of Philadelphia, came this note: "During our Daily Vacation Church School the children brought an offering each morning and presented it during the assembly period. It is our custom at the close of the school that the children decide how the offering shall be used. This year it was decided to send it to the children in a Japanese Relocation Center. At the suggestion of Grayce Kaneda, we are sending it to you."

John Sakauye, donation for the Overseas Christmas Fund.

Kikuno Miyagi, who attends Blue Mountain College, Miss.

"This week we are celebrating the 75th year since our college was founded.....we are to dress in clothes of the 1869's," writes Haruko Matsushita of St. Cloud, Minn. She designed the winning place cards for the Alumni banquet.

Mrs. J. B. Hunter pens: "I want to say 'Thank you' to all the church friends who prepared the book for us. It is unique and very interesting. And we never shall forget the lovely party you all gave us. The gifts will also help us to remember that happy occasion." 222 Downey Ave., Indianapolis 7, Ind.

"Before receiving those copies (church bulletins), my temporary home seemed thousand miles away, but now distance doesn't seem so far," says Fumi Seki of Menomonie, Wisconsin.
